City Entelligence. SATURDAY, Feb. 25.

SUPERIOR COURT - Before Judge OAKLEY .-Helen Sophia Lispenard and others vs. Robert Stowart .-Mr. Wood occupied the Court till 12 o'clock to-day, in close of the summing up. Messrs. Sandford and Butler then entered into explanations as to the various cases which had beencited. A short recess was taken, and the Court reassembled at 2 o'clock, the room being crowded in every part, and a large number of ladies present. Judge Oakley then delivered the charge. He congratulated the Jury on the termination of the case, which, ke said, was one of the most ardnous he had ever known; at least, since occupying a seat on the bench, or been ever engaged in. He also paid adeserved tribute to the patience and attention evinced by the Jury throughout the extended proceedings. He then stated that the question to be passed upon was simply whether Alice possessed so weak a mind that she did not understand the nature of the property she possessed. If so, the will is not valid, and the plaintiffs are entitled to recover. On the other hand, it they considered, from the testiony and the circumstances of the case, that her mind had improved to the extent spoken of after her going to reside with the family of Mr. Stewart, it was proof that she had not been an idiot from her birth, as all the authorities agree that where real idlocy exists there is no mind to develope whatever may be the appearances produced by acts of kindness on the part of friends. If this is established, then comes the question whether or not she had been unduly influenced to make her will, to the benefit of one portion of errelatives and the exclusion of the rest. It matters not thether this undue influence is caused by coercion and threats or by kindness and favor, for the law looks with unusal care on cases where weakness of mind exists, as shown in the present instance. If undue influence was exercised, e ber by threats or kindness, the will is invalid. That induence was used there is no doubt, yet nothing is shown on the part of Mr. Stewart or his family but kindness and attention. The only appearance to the centrary was nearly thirty years before the will being made, when Alice said tersister (Mrs. Stewart) told her that she would not give her any more new caps unless she signed or put her mark to the paper then handed ber, (the transfer of her interest in Anthony's estate.) Whether there was an undue in faence, or otherwise, the Jury must determine. It has been stated by counsel that instruction to make the will must be shown on the part of Alice, but the Court does not coasider that the law requires such. The witnesses remarked that Alice bad frequently expressed a determination to give the property to Mr. Stewart. If the Jury so consider it, that is sufficient to show her views. The Jury then reured, with directions, should they agree upon a verdict, to come in on the re-assembling of the Court at 5 o'clock. At that time they returned, finding a verdice in favor of plaintiff for one one hundred and sixtieth part of the property, as claimed in the declaration. | By this decison, the will of Airce, and the transfer she made in 1808, are declared to be invalid, by which more than 800 lots of land and buildings, between Authory and Spring streets, west Broadway, revert to her heirs at law] IF SARGENT'S MAGAZINE for March for sale at the Tribune Office. SUPERIOR COURT .- Before Chief Justice JONES

They denied his claim .-The Jary, however, found for plaintiff in the sum of $886 56 -oning principal and costs that have accrued.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT .- Before Judge BETTS. United States vs. Three Cases Embroidered Muslin Collars md-One Case Thread Luces .- These goods were seized by the Cellector on the ground of false invoice. They are daimed by Mr. Joseph O. Sonjean. The Jury, after a trial of three days, found a verdict in favor of the United States for the three cases embroidered goods, and for the claimant on the laces.

The same prisoner was also charged with having, about the lat of October, stolen a gold watch and chain, worth $50, from Mrs. Sophemia Humphries, then of No. 1 Beaverstreet, now of 32 Chapel street. Sinds's Sarsaparilla is recommended to be used with the remedy, as it tends to throw out from the blood and system generally all the unhealthy humor connected with the sheases, and the application of the remedy externally at the same time, entirely eradicates it from the system. The Remedy is perfectly harmless in its operations, and may be applied with perfect safety, even to the skin of the tenderest infant. Testimonials of its efficacy are daily received, and the following are selected for publication, which it is thought, will satisfy the mind of every candid

Yours, respectfully, Joseph G. Stanley, 65 Deiancy-st.
